

51st International Chess Open “CITY of SEVILLE”

From January 9 to 17, 2026

RULES

1. Participants.

Players with the ESP flag in FIDE must have a valid federation license in Spain for the tournament and foreign players must have a FIDE code before the start of the tournament. Participants have the obligation to verify their personal data, ELO and codes among others. Everyone must be registered at www.gefe.net

2. Venue and schedule.

The tournament will be held at the Palacio de Exposiciones y Congresos (Salón Albaicín), located in Avenida Alcalde Luis Uruñuela, 1, 41020 – Seville.

1st Round	January 9	5:30 pm
2nd Round	January 10	5:30 pm
3rd Round	January 11	5:30 pm
4th Round	January 12	5:30 pm
5th Round	January 13	5:30 pm
6th Round	January 14	5:30 pm
7th Round	January 15	5:30 pm
8th Round	January 16	5:30 pm
9th Round	January 17	9:30 am

The closing ceremony and awards ceremony will be on January 17 at 2:30 pm approximately.

3. System and pace of play.

Swiss system, according to the VEGACHESS program, 9 rounds. Complaints regarding computer pairing are not accepted, except for errors in data entry. Pairings will be considered official at 10:00 am, except for the last round, which will be official 2 hours after being published on the website.

The pace of play will be, for each player, 90 minutes plus a 30 seconds of increment per move.

Analysis or reproduction of games will not be permitted in the gaming room. You may not leave the Game Room, with the game in progress, without authorization from the Arbiter.

4. Initial Order.

According to current FIDE ELO (in those excluded from the list, their last published ELO). Next, by ELO FADA. In equality FIDE ratings, the best FIDE title will be considered and then in alphabetical order.

5. Application for BYE/Breaks.

There will be up to 3 BYE available to players (except invited players), they can be requested or canceled before the previous round begins (for example: to request a bye for round 5, it must be requested before starting round 4), applicable in the first 6 rounds of the tournament. In the requested round, the BYE applicant player will not be paired and will be awarded half a point. In all petitions the final decision is made by the Chief Arbiter based on the proper development of the competition, taking into account the number of points and/or the existence of non-appearances.

6. Delays, failure to appear and disqualifications.

A maximum delay of 60 minutes is allowed, counting the time from the official start time of the game.

The player who does not show up at the beginning of the first round may be replaced by another participant and will be excluded from the tournament. The failure of a player to appear in a round will cause his disqualification, unless he requests in writing to continue, before the pairing for the next round is published.

It supposes definitive disqualification: the accumulation of two non-appearances, justified or not.

7. Electronic devices.

Unless expressly authorised by the arbiters, in the playing hall, it is forbidden to use or carry any electronic device during the games. Such devices are permitted to be stored in players' bags, as long as the device is completely turned off. This bag must be placed in the place assigned by the Arbiter, players are prohibited from using this bag without the Arbiter's permission. Failure to comply results in the loss of the game. Neither the organization nor the Arbiters are responsible for the safekeeping and custody of electronic devices.

8. Annotation of the games.

Players have the obligation to deliver the original signed scoresheet with the correct result to the arbiter at the end of the game. The plays will be noted in as clear and legible a way as possible, algebraic notation. Remember that with this pace of play you cannot stop scoring at any time.

9. Valid for ELO.

The tournament will be valid for obtaining the title and the ELO FIDE and FADA classification standards, in accordance with current regulations.

10. Tiebreakers.

The following tiebreaker systems will be applied (games not played will be governed by the provisions of FIDE C.07)

- a) Penalizing premature draws*
- b) Bucholz -2 (BH-C2)
- c) Bucholz -1 (BH-C1)
- d) Number of games you have chosen to play (GE)
- e) Individual result (DE)
- f) Number of Wins (WIN)
- g) Average opponent performance (APRO)

*The penalty for early draws will be applied to games that ended in a draw without both players having made 30 moves each or within 1 hour before the start of the round. The tiebreak will be 0 for those who do not have any premature draws and negative for those who do, at a rate of -1 point for each game penalized for premature draws.

11. Conditions on play.

Players have the right to decent, regulatory and comfortable playing conditions; to fair and respectful treatment by the Organization and the Arbiters; to sufficient services; to a complete general sports information about the tournament; to specific information on title results; and have open access to the playing area 30 minutes before the start of the round.

12. Conditions of participation.

To participate in the tournament, you must accept the publication of images and personal data (name, surname, year of birth and sports data), in different media, for the necessary dissemination and promotion of the event (lists of results, classifications, participants, games,...). Participants will be required to sign this authorization before starting the tournament.

The tournament will be governed by the FIDE Chess Laws in force. Registration in the tournament implies acceptance of these rules and the pairing program used. These rules may be briefly modified before the start of the tournament.

13. Competition and complaints committee

The Competition Committee will be made up of the Tournament Director, with a casting vote, and 4 regular players and 2 substitutes. Only those born before 2007 and with a FIDE rating above 1700 can be part of the committee. Firstly, they will be chosen from among the players who are certified Arbiters. If these are less than 6, everyone will become part of the committee and the other places will be chosen by lottery among the remaining players. If there are more than 6, it will be chosen by lottery.

A decision of the Chief Arbiter may be appealed to the Competition Committee, in writing, within 15 minutes following the end of the game in question, under the terms authorized by the Laws of Chess. Sanctions outside the game, decided by the Chief Arbiter, are also appealable within 15 minutes of their notification. Complaints to the arbitration decisions may be presented to the committee at the end of the game about which the claim is raised and a deposit of €50 must be delivered to the organization, which will be returned only if the committee favorably resolves the claim.
